

Dutch Growers Home and Garden Finalist for the Service Award

At Dutch Growers Home and Garden their main focus is to provide Regina consumers with superior service as they shop for their home and garden. Dutch Growers attributes much of their success to a staff commitment to their “no customer left behind” policy and focusing on creating distinctive shopping experiences with each and every visit.

The company is proud to be a source for high quality plant material, lawn and garden supplies, and horticultural advice and their Décor and holiday departments continue to grow to meet the needs of their growing clientele.

Their combination of product selection and customer attention are what keep people coming back. At Dutch Growers Home and Garden Customer satisfaction is what keeps them growing!
